SECEDES ISLAND AS TOKEN OF FRIENDSHIP!

Copenhagen, Denmark - Everyone knows that the Vikings discovered America long before Christopher Columbus. Now Europe's #1 on line game site, Denmark's www.Quizpeople.com is offering an ISLAND (YEP! wipe those eyes clean) as this year's GRAND PRIZE to celebrate its rediscovery of the New World and entry into the North American market!

"We're back to finish what our ancestors started!"

Quizpeople's decision to offer an island as a grand prize caps off an insane year that has seen the one-year old start up rise from the rugged badlands of Denmark into becoming Europe's #1 online game site averaging over one million plus unique users monthly!

"It feels great to be retracing our ancestor's footsteps and into the US market. We figure there's no better way to show our appreciation for the chance and the great year we've had than for us to give an island away as this year's grand prize!" say Quizpeople.com founders, Per Sunesen and Claus Hyldgaard.

Always free to play with absolutely no catch!
